Interior Designer

Description

Interior Designer Construction | Super Prime Residential | Design Jobs | London

Up to £65,000 per annum plus travel, health and bonus

Our client a boutique design and development house is in the market for an Interior Designer to work on private commissions for UHNWI's on super prime residences.

They are seeking a talented Interior Designer to join their dynamic team of design and development professionals. This is a unique opportunity to work on some signature developments, elevate your craft and leave a legacy on some of the world's most exclusive properties.

Key Requirements

- Conceptualise and execute interior design concepts for super prime residences, blending elegance, innovation, and functionality.
- Collaborate closely with architects, developers and artisans to bring visionary designs to life.
- Source premium materials, FF&E and finishes to create bespoke interiors that exceed client expectations.
- Oversee all aspects of the design process, from initial sketches to final installations, ensuring meticulous attention to detail and uncompromising quality.

What We're Looking For:

- A proven track record of designing luxury interiors for high-end residential projects.
- Proficiency in AutoCAD design software 2D and 3D and a keen eye for emerging trends and innovations.
- Exceptional communication and presentation skills, with the ability to articulate design concepts to clients and stakeholders.
- A passion for craftsmanship, with a discerning taste for premium materials and finishes.

Competitive compensation package with opportunities for career advancement and development.

If you're ready to elevate your career and create extraordinary living spaces for the world's most discerning clientele, we want to hear from you! Upload your CV in strict confidence to Jamie Pearson quoting the reference: Interior Designer JP922
